Famous Mother's Day Thoughts

"All that I am or ever hope to be, I owe to my angel Mother "I remember my mother's prayers and they have always followed me. They have clung to me all my life." ~ Abraham Lincoln
"There never was a woman like her. She was gentle as a dove and brave as a lioness... The memory of my mother and her teachings were, after all, the only capital I had to start life with, and on that capital I have made my way." ~ Andrew Jackson
"In all my efforts to learn to read, my mother shared fully my ambition and sympathized with me and aided me in every way she could. If I have done anything in life worth attention, I feel sure that I inherited the disposition from my mother." ~ Booker T. Washington
"It seems to me that my mother was the most splendid woman I ever knew... I have met a lot of people knocking around the world since, but I have never met a more thoroughly refined woman than my mother. If I have amounted to anything, it will be due to her." ~ Charles Chaplin
"My mother was the most beautiful woman I ever saw. All I am I owe to my mother. I attribute all my success in life to the moral, intellectual and physical education I received from her." ~ George Washington

The Influence of a Mother & Grandmother

2 Timothy 1:5, "When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also."

I love reading about the women in the Bible. Recently, I was studying about Timothy's Grandmother, Lois, and his mother, Eunice. Not much is mentioned about them, but what is said makes a huge statement about them as women. The Bible says in the verse above that they had "unfeigned faith." The word "unfeigned" means "not pretended, sincere, and genuine." Faith is something that we should all possess, but you have probably realized that different people have different levels of faith. I love that God tells us that these women had a strong, genuine and sincere faith. This is the faith that they instilled in Timothy, and if we learn by example, this is the type of faith we should instill in our children.

These two women worked together as a team to raise Timothy in the right way. Through this story, you see the power of the influence of not just a mother, but the grandmother in a child's life. The power and influence of my Mom and Grandmother left an impression on my life. That influence has helped me to become the man I am today. And as Judy says, "Mom would be proud of you." And I know my Grandma Dolly would be too!

Often I would sit on the porch swing outside my Grandmas window and hear her pray. I waited as she went through the names of each of her 6 children. Then she would name her grandchildren, and I waited with anticipation for my name to be called. I recall sitting listening to her read the Bible, which was a passion of hers. Probably the reason I have such a passion for scripture. In fact I am the grandchild who has that very Bible, and I so cherish it. I would sit on the end of the piano bench as she would sing and play the old hymns. That gave me the longing to play the piano one day. She was such a great Godly Lady with her long hair braided and wrapped in a bun. So loving, kind and always made each grandchild feel so special!

As Mothers, and now most of you as Grandmothers, you have an opportunity to leave a lasting influence that will live on!

Recipe

Mother's Day Pie

Ingredients

- 9 inch pie plate
- 1 cup white sugar
- 2 tablespoons all-purpose flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 6 tablespoons butter, melted
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 3 eggs
- 1 (12 fluid ounce) can evaporated milk
- 1 cup shredded coconut

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 325 degrees F (165 degrees C). Generously grease and flour a 9 inch pie plate.
2. In a medium bowl, mix together sugar, flour, and salt. Stir in melted butter or margarine and vanilla extract. Add eggs one at a time, mixing well after each addition. Mix in evaporated milk followed by coconut. Pour mixture into pie plate.
3. Bake in preheated oven for 35 to 40 minutes. Chill before serving.
